

Abbeyfield Canada introduces new staff members

Dec. 20, 2018 – Abbeyfield Canada president James Galloway is pleased to welcome JP Melville and Tanya Sprowl to the Abbeyfield Canada team.

He also thanks outgoing executive director Daniel Tessier-Young for his years of service with Abbeyfield Canada.

Melville is an Ottawa-based, not-for-profit business and project management consultant who partners with organizations, individuals, and the private sector to assist them in realizing their goals.

Since 2014, Melville has worked closely with Abbeyfield Ottawa and Abbeyfield Canada with a focus on developing the Abbeyfield business model and its successful integration into Canada's seniors housing sector.

Sprowl is the owner and Creative Director of phivedesign, a graphic design company that offers impactful and cost effective solutions since 1998.

Working as phivedesign, she has made the NGO/NPO sector the focus of her work believing that they need help delivering their message most of all. Sprowl said she believes in the Abbeyfield model and is excited about helping to promote existing Houses and develop more through her social media skills.

Melville and Sprowl will be based in a new Ottawa office at 211 Bronson Avenue, Ottawa, Ontario, K1R 6H5, and can be reached by phone at 905-864-0100 and email at info@abbeyfield.ca.

For more information on Abbey field Canada , see <https://www.abbeyfield.ca>